Murray Observes V-J Day With Hour Of Prayer, Closed Stores, Parade

Murray celebrated the news of Japan's surrender and the world peace in a quiet manner with a large crowd going to the Methodist church for an hour of prayer in a community program at 8 p.m. Tuesday night. Church bells rang, the fire siren sounded, joyous hearts sounded the horns of automobiles, and industry whistles screamed the news that the war was over.

The church did not hold all who went to pray. The vestibule held standing audiences, the stairways were crowded, the aisles were filled, and people walked up and down outside and waited for the services to end.
People from all churches attended. There were sweethearts, wives, children, mothers, fathers, and relatives of service men present, and a few men and women in uniform were in the audience. Faces were drawn with the anxious years that have gone by with war and its horrors. These faces told the tale of suffering the joy of the news of peace, and tears filled many eyes as songs were sung and prayers offered for victory.

Three Pastors On Program
The Rev. T. H. Mullins, pastor of the Methodist church, presided and made the announcements. Miss Jane Sexton played the organ. The Rev. Robert Jarman, pastor of the Christian Church, read the scripture, and the Rev. Sam McKee, pastor of the Presbyterian church, made a brief talk. Prayers were offered silently and oral prayers from the pulpit.
"America" Opening Song
The roof of the church literally failed as the hundreds of voices sang the opening song "America."

The War Is Over!

The war is over! There is peace on earth and we trust there is good will toward men. I must write an editorial — it is expected of an editor on such an occasion. I don't feel inspired to write — instead of finding words of expression, I find editorials written on the faces of men and women and children as they, all day Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, waited for news of peace, as they gathered in the church of prayer — as they milled the streets on the square — talking — waiting.

I read an editorial on the doors of every business house in town. That editorial was unwritten — just a closed door without a sign. It told the story of — What we have been waiting for — What we have been working for — What we have saved for — What we have sacrificed for — What we have prayed for — "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men!"

What a thought! Peace — The war is ended! We are ready now for the rebuilding of a war-torn world. We must leave the facts of the past six years to historians, and confine these awful years in the pages of history.

We must shift gear — even turn into reverse and exert our energy toward hopes of the future — Toward lifting the fallen — Toward a feeling of respect and brotherly love for all peoples.

Let us forget! ... "Lord God of Hosts, Be With Us Yet, Let Us Forget!" We have been blessed. We have escaped the torment of war in our land. We must realize that our country is undisturbed. We must be the leading nation in supplying food and support to nations that have not been spared destruction.

Victory Loan Drive Planned

Secretary of the Treasury Vinson has begun to plan for a Victory Loan drive. It will be the eighth War Bond campaign, and is expected to be launched early in October.
It is probable that the goal will be from 10 to 14 billion dollars. The last drive—the seventh—had a goal of 14 billion dollars. In the seven drives the nation has subscribed $15,749,000,000 towards combined goals of $85,000,000,000.
"It will give each one of us," Vinson said in a statement, "an opportunity to tell the men—and the women—of our Army, of our Navy, our Marine Corps, of our Coast Guard, and all others whose selfless services have helped us win this war, how proud we are of them. It will give us all an opportunity to share in the tasks yet to be done."

BILLIE COLLINS, 5, IS KILLED WHILE PLAYING WITH GUN

Billie Clinton Collins, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Collins, formerly of this county and now residing in Pauls Valley, Okla., died at noon Wednesday from a self-inflicted rifle shot at the garage apartment home of his parents. The news came to the little boy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hart, of the Hazel road, Wednesday afternoon, and they with their son, Frank Nix Hart, left late that afternoon to attend the funeral.

According to pews here, the little fellow found his daddy's 22 rifle in the wardrobe in the upstairs bedroom and is presumed to have been inspecting the gun when it went off. The bullet entered his neck just below the chin. He placed the gun in the position he had found it and ran down the steps and collapsed near the car parked in the garage.

The mother had just called her two sons to lunch and the older one, Don Paul, who is eight years old, was taking a shower near the steps when his mother came for them and found Billie dead. He is presumed to have tried to make his way to his little brother or his mother after he let the gun discharge. A few drops of blood were found in the bedroom near the gun.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Stufflebeam Funeral Home in Pauls Valley Friday. Mrs. Collins was Lydia Sue Hart before her marriage, and is well known here where she finished high school and attended Murray State College. She is the niece of Mayor George Hart, Mrs. Bun Crawford, Wells Nix, and Leman Nix. Mr. Collins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Collins of Pauls Valley.

MAX GUTHRIE IS KILLED IN ACTION JULY, '44

S-Sgt. Max R. Guthrie, A.A.P., 2nd son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Guthrie of Highland Park, Mich., but formerly of Murray, who was reported missing in action on July 18, 1944, is now assumed killed in action on that date by the War Department, and this week they notified Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie to that effect.

S-Sgt. Guthrie was shot down while on his 36th mission, and was flying over Memmingen, Germany. He was a waist gunner on a Flying Fortress and went over seas in March, 1944. He enlisted in the A.A.P. on February 20, 1943.
He often visited in Murray in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Harrison.

Besides his parents and grandparents he is survived by three brothers, James, Hugh and Joe, and one sister, Mrs. Charlotte Small of Kansas City.

Mrs. Guthrie has received a letter from the top turret gunner flying with Sgt. Guthrie on this day in which he stated that so far as he knew he was the only surviving member of the crew. He praised Sgt. Guthrie for his excellent qualities both as soldier and as a Christian gentleman.

Halt Draft Of Men Over 26 Years Old

President Truman Tuesday night forecast that 5,000,000 to 5,500,000 men now in the Army may be returned to civilian life within the next 12 to 18 months.

Furthermore, he said in announcing Japan's surrender, only the lowest age groups will now be drafted into the Army. Preliminary estimates indicate only those under 28 will be called, Mr. Truman added.

His recommendation was that Selective Service reduce inductions immediately from 80,000 a month to 50,000.

Army releases will be speeded by air and sea transportation in an effort to return that 5,000,000 to 5,500,000 figure.

Mr. Truman said that in justice to millions of men who have given "long and faithful services under the difficult and hazardous conditions of the Pacific war and elsewhere overseas a constant flow of replacements to the occupational forces is thought to be imperative."

Rationing Is Going

OPA has announced immediate termination of rationing on gasoline, canned fruits and vegetables, fuel oil and oil stoves.

But meats, fats, oils, butter, sugar, shoes and tires will remain on the rationed lists "until military cutbacks and increased production brings civilian supplies more nearly in balance with civilian demand," was the statement Price Administrator Chester Bowles made Wednesday evening.

Miss Williams won her letter in badminton, and Miss Hart was the winner of talent night contest with a clever song and dance number.

Others who returned Monday from Camp Deerwood were the following youngsters: Misses Mary Elizabeth and Jane Roberts and Sue Upchurch, Mrs. Ray Brownfield, all of Murray, and Miss Ruth Armstrong of Madisonville, who is a graduate of Murray State.

WORK BEGINS ON CALLOWAY SERVICE BOOK; INFORMATION, NAMES NEEDED NOW

Work is actually in progress here in the office on the compilation of the Calloway County Service Book. Beginning with the first man to enter the service from this county, we are securing accurate information about every man and woman who wore the uniform in this War. We have pictures of several hundred, but the names and facts about all service men of this county will be included. If we have published in the newspaper items that are inaccurate, we will appreciate it if you will correct this error with us before it goes into the book.
A lot of time and work will be required to make this book valuable to the owner, and any assistance that you can offer will be a great help.
Remember this: We are working now—and expect to be able to announce within a few days when the books will be off the press.—L. H.

Mystery Is Solved Concerning The Town Clock

Last week we were in a veil of mystery concerning who fixed the town clock. Now we know who put the old time piece on the pick again. Alfred Hant Scull, who recently came to Murray to take up his residence and a veteran of World War II, started the work and the town clock is sending forth its hourly bells, but we still have to admit that the time is two hours behind. However, Mr. Scull was in the office today (Thursday) and assured us that the clock would chime nine times at exactly 9:00 tonight.

President Truman Announces Japan's Acceptance of Potsdam Peace Terms

After three years, eight months and seven days, the war is ended. Japan surrendered unconditionally August 14 at 6 p.m. C.W.T., according to an announcement made by President Truman Tuesday evening by radio.

General Douglas A. MacArthur has been designated Supreme Allied Commander to receive the surrender. Offensive operations have been ordered stopped. V-J Day will be proclaimed only after the surrender has been formally accepted by MacArthur.

Directions for Surrender

General MacArthur has issued directions by which the final-surrender program may be expected. Japan is to fly the surrender party in white planes marked with green crosses and land on a white field marked with green crosses after a six-hour starting message has been received by MacArthur, the announcement today stated.

War Cost 1,075,000 Casualties

The war cost us approximately 1,075,000 casualties, more than 260,000 of them killed. The Japanese war claimed about 275,000 of the total casualties, although the European war cost Calloway County more casualties than did the Pacific war.

Other Costs Heavy

Some $350,000,000,000 of the nation's wealth was expended in the war. Sixteen million men served in the armed forces. The peak of strength of the armed forces at one time was about 12,000,000 men and women; and it is said that compared with World War I this war was more than five times as costly in lives lost and six times as expensive in dollars spent.

President Truman's Statement

Tuesday evening on the radio hook-up President Truman said this statement:
"I have received this afternoon a message from the Japanese Government in reply to the message forwarded to that Government by the Secretary of State on August 11."

"I deem this reply a full acceptance of the Potsdam Declaration which specifies the unconditional surrender of Japan. In this reply there is no qualification. Arrangements are now being made for the formal signing of surrender terms at the earliest possible moment. General Douglas MacArthur has been appointed the Supreme Allied commander to receive the Japanese surrender."

Regards Surrender As Unconditional

President Truman said he regarded the surrender as "unconditional." The Japanese note, however, directly followed one from Secretary of State Byrnes in which the Allied agreed that the Japanese would be permitted to keep their Emperor at least for 8 time. The Byrnes note prescribed that the Emperor should be completely controlled by the Allies; also that the Japanese people should have an opportunity later on to decide by ballot the kind of Government they want.
Truman read the formal message relayed from Emperor Hirohito through the Swiss Government in which the Japanese ruler pledged the surrender on the terms laid down by the Big Three conference at Potsdam.

V-J To Await Formal Signing

"Great Britain, the United States, and the Soviet Union will be represented by high-ranking officers."

"Meantime, the Allied armed forces have been ordered to suspend offensive action."
The proclamation of V-J Day must wait upon the formal signing of the surrender terms by Japan.

Text of Message From Japan

The text of this message which was delivered by the Swiss chargé d'affaires follows:
"Communication of the Japanese Government of August 14, 1945, addressed to the Governments of the United States, Great Britain, the Soviet Union, and China:

"With reference to the Japanese Government's note of August 10 regarding their acceptance of the provisions of the Potsdam Declaration and the reply of the Governments of the United States, Great Britain, the Soviet Union and China sent by American Secretary of State Byrnes under the date of August 11, the Japanese Government have the honor to communicate to the Governments of the four powers as follows:

Ready to Issue Necessary Orders
"1. His Majesty the Emperor has issued an imperial rescript regarding Japan's acceptance of the provisions of the Potsdam declaration."

"2. His Majesty the Emperor is prepared to authorize and insure the signature by his Government and the Imperial General Headquarters of necessary terms for carrying out the provisions of the Potsdam Declaration. His Majesty is also prepared to issue his commands to all the military, naval, and air authorities of Japan and all the forces under their control wherever located to cease active operations, to surrender arms, and to issue such other orders as may be required by the supreme commander of the Allied forces for the execution of the above-mentioned terms."

Detroit's Famous Walter P. Cousino, Inventor of 150 Items, Seeks Retirement Site On Kentucky Lake; Visits Murray and Calloway County Points of Interest

Murray enjoyed a visit from a famous man and his wife last week when Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Cousino, inventor of 150 items, spent a day and night here looking over the county and town, and seeing the Kentucky Lake that he had heard about from Callowayans living in Detroit where Mr. and Mrs. Cousino reside.

Mr. Cousino is credited with developing the continuous injection machine, for plastics, the only known device of its kind in the world. It is capable of laying an unbroken seamless tube of any kind of plastics or rubber of any length.

The machine is producing seamless plastic tubes to launch deadly rockets, but it is not confined to producing only one implement. It is ready to produce rubber insulators, thermoplastic products, such as shock-absorber insulators, aircraft engine gaskets, seals for pipelines and carburetor bowls.

Mr. Cousino is credited with 150 inventions. The injection machine being one of his last works, was devised and built in the basement of his home. He is the project engineer for Chrysler and through the engineers there, he works and advances his ideas.

Mr. Cousino is 45 years old. He was born on a farm near Erie, Mich., where he resided until he was 20 years old. His first invention was at the age of 20, and resulted as he did all of his inventions from necessity as the mother of invention.

The family car gave him dim lights, as did the cars back 25 years ago, and necessitated having a spot light on the windshield. When the side curtains were up, the spot light could not be manipulated from the inside easily, so he worked out the device for operating it from the inside.

For this invention, he received a $10,000.00 recognition. That really started him to thinking. He followed his early invention with the making of deer eyes for taxidermists.

In a special visit with him and his charming wife here Thursday night, he said how "with the help of my wife, I turned out 11,000 miniature rubber tires in our basement and the metal hubs to go with them. We used about three tons of rubber one year. We made thousands of the little plastic carburetors. We made crank handles for adding machines."

the public address system. Occasionally he would say "This is V-J Day, Aren't We Happy?" To that the crowds that milled about the streets, hung out upper story windows, crowded steps, filled cars, and loitered in the court yard, answered with applause.

The Parade Marched

Hundreds of handsome members of the Navy Refresher School with officers, veterans of World War I and II, and Girls Scouts, Boy Scouts, followed the drums and color guards as they paraded around the square in the blazing sun. The lead troupe halted in front of the Honor Roll standing in the south east corner of the court yard.

Commander Graham announced: "Hall Hood, member of the Navy in War I, who spoke briefly of the Victory. Pfc. Charlie Lassiter, member of World War II four years, gave an expression of thanks for his fellow service-men. Joe T. Lovett, officer in World War II, spoke briefly of the fallen men of this war. During a silent prayer of thanks and a prayer for the wounded and dead, the flag in the court yard was lowered to half mast to remain the rest of the day in honor of the dead of World War II.

S. Pleasant Grove

By Mrs. Sara Smotherman

Bert Moore after several months illness is able again to attend church services.

Jesse Brandon is visiting his family at Murray and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Toy Brandon of Midway.

Aunt Vic Brown Miller, one of the oldest members of Sinking Springs Church, recently passed her 85th birthday and is active for one of her age.

Although the main work of Pleasant Grove Cemetery is done by hired caretakers, the masses of the grave stones were surrounded by grass. Last Saturday morning about 100 men and women met at the cemetery and with shears and other implements cleaned around the stones.

As it was not convenient to be present (although I had several relatives who took part) I want to say "thank you" for what was done to the graves of our own family. To you in other communities and some overseas these workers remembered to beautify the ground around the grave stones of your loved ones too.

The hand motor mower which this community is so fortunate to own for the Pleasant Grove cemetery like the lawn mower cannot remove all the grass around the grave stones.

Mrs. Grace Hicks and daughter and family of Bruceton, Tenn., were week-end visitors with the former's sister Mrs. Hartie Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Stark Ervin and family; also Mrs. Holmes Ellis and son Holmes were visitors in this home, and with them attended the Paschal reunion at Lebanon church near Hazel Sunday afternoon.

Other relatives or friends from a distance at the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Hughie Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Ellis, Mary and Joe from Gosport, Miss Annie Hooper, formerly of Lebanon, but now of Nashville, Brad Edgar Underwood, Mrs. Underwood and their daughter (whose husband is in service) of Paducah.

MURRAY HIGH TIGERS REPORT FOR FIRST PRACTICE SESSION

Six Lettermen On Squad; Furgerson Is 1945 Captain

The Murray High Tigers held their first grid session of the 1945 season Wednesday afternoon when 35 candidates reported to Head Coach T. Holland and Assistant Coach Albert Crider. Only six lettermen are on the squad. They are Hugh Giles and Billy Furgerson, 181; Paul Dill, 122; Bobby Hale, tackle; Billy Thurman, guard; and Lee Ross Melugin, a tackle, last year but who will probably be converted into a back this season.

Candidates reporting Wednesday included the following:

Backs: "Red" Stewart, 130; Bobby Cable, 145; Jackie Miller, 135; Pete Purdom, 135; Hugh Giles, 160; Billy Furgerson, 181; Paul Dill, 122; Bobby Hale, tackle; Billy Thurman, guard; and Lee Ross Melugin, a tackle, last year but who will probably be converted into a back this season.

Ends: Robert Moser, 160; David Lyons, 148; John D. Phillips, 160; Eli Alexander, 135; Joe Pat Hackett, 138.

Guards: Billy Thurman, 150; Chester Thomas, 140; Max Brown, 156; Gene Workman, 137; Billy Rudolph, 135; Joe Cable, 120.

Centers: Joe G. Baker, 150; Billy Farris, 155.

Coach Holland announced that other candidates would report this week and with the opening of school many other younger football enthusiasts would join the squad.

Using the words of Coach Holland: "We will have to wait a few days to find out just who will be ready to fill the vacancies. We have a goodly number of boys who are on the light side, but if they want to do it bad enough they will make the grade."

Looking over the squad Wednesday afternoon one could see that Hugh Giles, Billy Furgerson, and Lee Ross Melugin will furnish good material this season. Just who will fill the fourth spot in this pre-season backfield is a large question mark.

At one end post Robert Moser will more than likely get the starting nod, while John D. Phillips, a well-built and mature lad, is a likely bet for the other post if he hits his stride. David Lyons is also a "good bet" to see action. Eli Alexander is on the up and coming list and may make trouble for some one before the season is over. Joe Pat Hackett is on the list to make a good end when he gains experience, and adds a bit of weight.

The fight for starting berth at tackle will be one of the most interesting highlights on the squad. Gene Hale has the inside track as he saw plenty of action in '44 and is weighing in at 219. Johnny McCage at 170 and Joe Pat Anderson at 160 are newcomers to the gridiron but are sturdy lads and from all appearances they are going to put up a battle royal. Hugh Wilson, up from the junior squad of last year, is checking in at 200 pounds and will make his bid. Harry Smyth and Jimmie Ramsey, each weighing 165 pounds, declare they are going to make somebody step for a starting berth. Charles Tolley, another junior member up this year, weighing 140 pounds, makes known he is also going to push his way into a starting post before the season is over.

Billy Thurman lettered last season and is almost a sure shot for a guard spot. Max Brown should run a good race for the other guard position. Others trying for the most important spot are Chester Thomas, Gene Workman, Billy Rudolph and Joe Cable.

Joe G. Baker and Billy Farris, to date, are in a two-way battle for the center post. At this early date it is likely that it will be a "horse race" to see who gets the starting nod, however, both lads will get plenty of action before the 1945 season grows cold.

Melugin, Giles and Furgerson were kicking extremely well for the opening session. All three boys are capable of turning in a good game in this department.

Just who will assist Furgerson in the passing game is not yet known. Coach Holland has several younger members who can toss the ball with no mean ability.

The 1945 schedule, as announced by Coach Holland today, is as follows:

September 14—Princeton, away.
September 27—(now open) here.
September 28—Mayfield, away.
October 5—Fulton, here.
October 12—Bowling Green, away.
October 19—Marion, here.
October 26—Sturgis, here.
November 2—Hopkinsville, away.
November 9—Russellville, away.
November 22—(Thanksgiving) Paris, here.

Miss Miriam McElrath Becomes Bride Of Law M. Mobley, Jr.

The marriage of Miss Miriam McElrath, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh M. McElrath, to Law M. Mobley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Law Mobley, Sr., of Laurens S. C., took place at a beautiful ceremony on Thursday afternoon, August 9, at 5:30 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. The single ring ceremony was read by the Rev. J. E. Skinner.

Decorations at the altar were of massed palms and ferns making a background for baskets of white gladioli. The chancel rail was entwined with garlands of smilax and waxen tapers burned in branched candelabra.

Mrs. Barber McElrath, pianist, began the nuptial music with a medley of love songs which she had arranged and played for the wedding of the bride's parents. Then followed selections by Miss Lillian Waters, organist, including "Meditation" from Thal's "At Dawning" by Cadman, and "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice" from Samson and Delilah. Hugh Thomas McElrath, brother of the bride, was soloist and sang "I Love Thee" and "O Perfect Love" by Burleigh. He was accompanied by Miss Waters, who also played the traditional Lohengrin Wedding March for the entrance of the bride and groom. Mendelssohn for the recessional, "Claire de Lune" by Debussy, was played during the pledging of the vows, and at the conclusion of the ceremony, the soloist sang the concluding prayer, "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. Post-nuptial music as the bride couple received the congratulations of their friends as they left the church included the following organ selections by Miss Waters: "I Love You Truly," "Because," "O Promise Me."

James Colson Wedding Is Event Of August 11 at First Baptist Church

Miss Josephine James, daughter of Mrs. Mary Dove James, became the bride of Pfc. William Joe Colson, U. S. Marines, on Saturday afternoon, August 11, at 5 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. The Rev. R. B. Sawyer read the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bridal party was grouped before the altar which was decorated with palms and ferns and baskets of pink and white gladioli. Garland of smilax were used against the baptistry as background, and tall cathedral tapers burned in branched candelabra which were entwined with climatis.

Miss Lillian Waters, organist, presented a program of nuptial music to the guests assembled. Her selections included "Because" by D'Hardirot, "Always" by Berlin, and "At Dawning" by Cadman. The Lohengrin and Mendelssohn wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional, and the ceremony melody was "I Love You Truly" by Bond. Just preceding the ceremony Misses Minnie Lee Churchill and Fay Nell Anderson sang "O Promise Me" by DeVon.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Grover Wood James, wore a wedding gown of white satin styled along Princess lines with the skirt ending in a train. The sweetheart neckline was outlined with seed pearls, and the long sleeves ended in points at the wrists. The fingertip veil of illusion was edged with lace and attached to a coronet of matching lace. Her only ornament was a Marine pin, the gift of the groom. The bride carried a white prayer book topped with a purple orchid and showered with tube roses and satin ribbons.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Joe Ed Gibbs of Paducah. Her gown was fashioned of blue net over blue satin with tight-fitting bodice and full skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow gladioli showered with velvet ribbons in yellow and burnt orange, and in her hair she wore a bandeau matching her frock.

The groom, who is the son of Mrs. Ernie Colson, was attended by his sister, Mrs. Joe Ed Gibbs of Paducah. He wore a black tuxedo and in her hair she wore a bandeau matching her frock.

The groom's mother chose a frock of blue printed sheet with white accessories and corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Grover Wood James' frock was a black sheer with black accessories and her corsage was of pink roses and tube roses.

Later in the evening the bride and groom left for a wedding trip to Chicago. They will return to Murray until the conclusion of Pfc. Colson's furlough when they will report to Cherry Point, N. C., where he will be stationed. For traveling Mrs. Colson chose a brown two piece suit with brown accessories and a corsage of orchids and tube roses.

Pfc. Colson is a graduate of Murray High School, and has been employed as typist and file clerk for the American Transit Company, Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Out of town guests for the wedding included Mrs. T. J. Stahl of Paducah and Mrs. John Moore of Hazel, aunts of the bride, Joe Ed Gibbs of Paducah, Yeoman 3-c in Imogene Colson and Yeoman 3-c in Murray, Kentucky.

THE WAR IS GOING AND COMING!

I don't think the Japs are ready for a parole. They are worse than Germany to deal with — they cannot be trusted with self-government.

Let us hope for early relief from many agencies of control that so handicap production in food and clothing, before we are into winter again; however the ceiling prices should be kept in force with some revision that would increase production and encourage quality.

We are receiving Blankets, Rubber Footwear, Leather Coats, and Shoes for all the family.

There is no evidence of desirable merchandise being plentiful before spring, so it is necessary to take care of every usable garment.

I am interested in buying a Tractor outfit of plows, harrow, and cutter bar for mowing.

Come in to see us every time you are in town.

T. O. TURNER

P. S.—Y-J Day is here! Thank God for his dispensation for peace again. It is all in our laps again, what will we do with it in reconversion? Many changes of occupation and earning power. Don't let the war money slip away from you, as it may not come so freely now. Uncle Sam will do a lot for the service men and their families. However, the service men will have to pay much of the taxes; so it will be like a cow doing her own milking. A much needed fraternal order would be a conservative club.—T. O. T.

Road from Tri-City To Dukedom Is In Graves County Plan

According to news from Mayfield this week, the executive board of the Mayfield-Graves Chamber of Commerce went on record to request the State Highway Department to put blacktop finish on five roads in that county. Among the five roads in the plan is the road leading from Tri-City through Dukedom to Pilot Oak to Lynnville.

Calloway county has wanted that road hard surfaced for a long time. It would mean a shorter route to Fulton—a road that is much needed by this county. Other roads included in the plan were Water Valley to Pilot Oak; Route 131 to Symsonia; and the road through

THANK GOD IT'S OVER

Yes, the war is over.

Yes, it is natural that we should exalt and celebrate...

But it is also time for soul-searching thinking.

A time to think of men who are beneath crosses at Anzio, St. Lo, along the Rhine River, at Iwo Jima, and Okinawa.

A time to think of the men you won't see marching in victory parades... the over 300,000 wounded who are still suffering - - still struggling to recover what they gave up for us.

A time to think of the 7,000,000 men—sons, husbands, brothers, fathers, who are still thousands of miles, and weeks and months away from the ones they love.

We must—we will take care of our own—by buying another Victory Bond now -- and continuing to buy them for as long as the need exists.

Surely, you can see why the most important bonds you ever bought are the ones you buy now to complete the peace.

This is your biggest and greatest chance to salute the brave men who fought and won this war for you.

MURRAY STATE GRID CANDIDATES PREPPING DAILY

Out of 88 possible candidates, over 60 Navy men participated in opening football practice here this week at Murray State College with Head Coach Roy Stewart in charge.

Practice for the entire squad, including civilians will not begin until September 10. Tommy Devington, flashy Murray High halfback, worked out, however, with the navy men, assisting Mr. Stewart this year as Chief Specialist. William B. Robinson, Head Basketball Coach John Miller, and Head Baseball Coach Carlisle Cutchin.

For the first time in his career, Stewart is adopting the "T" formation, at least for a few plays this season. Since the summer term will close Saturday, August 18, Stewart has begun outlining his plays so that Navy men may carry on with Chief Robinson during the college vacation.

The entire group of 400 men based here with the Naval Academy Refresher Unit met last week to fill out a "questionnaire" concerning their training and qualifications for varsity football. Of the 88 who filled out questionnaires only 17 have had college experience. Eleven reported no experience, 28 had three or four years of high school experience, and 32 had two years or less of high school football.

Among the 17 reporting college experience were the following: H. W. Howard, halfback, Cartersville, Ga.; University of Tennessee; Sam Jones, back and end, Tampa, Fla.; Miami University; Leslie R. Jones, end, Orlando, Calif.; Yuba Junior College; Joe B. Taylor, tackle, Richlands, N. C.; Presbyterian Junior College; L. D. Schooley, blocking back, Houston, Texas; Marshall Junior College; Raymond A. Machi, Somerville, Mass.; Melville Navy P. T. Team; Paul M. Brown, back, Dallas, Texas; University of Texas; William Cardelle, Greenwich, Conn.; VPI; James R. Allard, end and back; Redlands University.

J. W. Lay, center and end, Winfield, Ga. N.A.S.; Jerome J. Harvey, center, Winnetka, Ill.; Bunker Hill and Great Lakes; John Buckley, end, Cleveland Heights, Ohio; Ohio State; Andrew J. Jetter, guard, Bellows, L. L. N.Y.; Hefstra; Robert F. Kortsch, halfback; Rice Lake, Wis.; Marquette; Fred Fogher, fullback, Mount Airy, N. C.; Duke University; Carroll Jacobson, halfback, St. Edward, Neb.; Luther College.

Murray officials declined to speculate upon what effect the Japanese surrender will have upon the Navy prospects for football here. Last year with a joint noticed that the subsidy of 95 cents per hundredweight now paid to slaughterers for all sheep and lambs slaughtered in authorized plants will be withdrawn, as to any slaughter performed on and after August 5, 1945.

The program seeks (1) to encourage the raising and feeding of lambs to heavier weights, (2) to bring about a more normal seasonal distribution in the marketing of lambs into legitimate slaughter channels, (4) to help producers meet increased costs without increasing consumer prices on lamb and mutton.

In recent months sheep raisers and lamb feeders have been subject to increasing costs and decreasing profits. As a result, breeding ewes and relatively light lambs have been sold for slaughter. Stock sheep have decreased from slightly less than 50 million head on January 1, 1942 to approximately 41 million head January 1, 1945.

To be eligible, for payments under the new program, sheep and lambs must be sold to a legally authorized slaughterer who has certified that the animals are purchased for slaughter. Sellers would retain their sales accounts, invoices, and other evidence showing the weights and purchasers of all lambs and sheep sold on or after August 5, 1945.

Payments to sellers are to be made through the offices of the County Committee of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency.

While the program is expected to increase the supply of lamb, consumers should not expect an immediate increase in total supply since time is required to grow and fatten lambs to heavier weights. More lambs are expected to be marketed through legitimate channels, resulting in improved distribution.

Payments for all other sheep, August, 1945 through June 1946, will be $1.00 per hundredweight.

The new payment program, with payments made by the Commodity Credit Corporation instead of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is in accordance with Senate Bill 1270, passed by the Congress on July 20, 1945, and now awaiting signature by the President.

Governor Willis Makes Survey of Tennessee Tourists' Dollars

Governor Simeon Willis is greatly encouraged by general public reaction to the proposal of a promotion of travel in Kentucky.

The Governor has no illusions that a state organization or an abundance of tourist travel would serve as a cure-all for any state ills that might exist. He indicated last week that he is squarely behind any feasible movement or development beneficial to Kentucky. Governor Willis produced a survey made in 1941 by the State of Tennessee showing the value of tourist trade to that State.

$104,462.481 Spent by Tourists in 1941

The survey showed that tourists spent $104,462.481 in Tennessee that year, while figures recently released by Commissioner of Conservation Harold A. Browning show that for the same year Kentucky received only $68,972,000. Both the Governor and Mr. Browning feel that the two states are quite comparable in natural tourist advantages.

Tourist's Money Analyzed

Of the total amount spent by tourists in Tennessee the survey shows $26,115,620 went for car operation expenditures. Obviously in Kentucky the gasoline tax from that amount of money would go to the Department of Highways for road building. The survey further shows that Tennessee tourists spent $28,204,780 for food; $24,026,380 for overnight accommodations; $13,580,122 for retail purchases; $6,267,748 for amusements and $6,267,748 for all other items not classified.

Governor Believes in Advertising

An interesting fact in the survey, pointed out by the Governor and which he feels is food for legislative thought in Kentucky, is the statement that "in additional gas tax alone the State received directly $200 for every dollar invested in advertising."

Now that the war is nearing the end, we can expect to start our job on advertising the recreational facilities that are here. Murray and Calloway County should benefit from this advantage particularly. But we have a job to get done before we can expect much.

Yale University To Adopt Religious Education Program

Yale University is planning a greater spiritual and ethical program, according to reports. Evidently that leading college is striving to elevate undergraduate standards, and is working toward a program to combat an irreligious tendency that has marked scholastic thinking in many American universities. Here in Kentucky, we move in the opposite direction when thinking of promoting the study of the Bible in state schools. When we think of how little time students have in actual study of religious subjects outside of the church school, it is alarming and it is no wonder that the world has suffered a war that touched every person.

No announced plans have been given as to the instruction that will be used in this new work in Yale, but "President Seymour's committee of ten which made this recommendation for Yale warns that such a program calls for vision and valor. The Alumni Association of that school received a message from the University Christian Association recalling what Hitler had to say about the decay of the Christian faith. We know the results of the German youth program.

If Yale is planning to open her doors to a broader effort to bring religious into the students' lives, other universities may follow. Other school leaders believe that there can be no better moment than the closing of the World War to broaden religious education in public schools for the advancement of Christian living. Christianity must be an essential quality in making a world peace and keeping the world free from wars.

Letters To Editor

 Mrs. Lockie Hart, Editor
 The Ledger & Times
 Murray, Kentucky
 Dear Lockie:

I have lost a friend, a big true friend. Dr. James H. Richmond walked with big men, and was truly a big man himself in every sense of the word. He was a friend to all who tried to do worthwhile things.

When Dr. Richmond came to Murray I had already received my degree and was serving on the campus as Baptist Student Secretary. I along with the students who were promoting the Baptist Student Union program, to be not only sympathetic but enthusiastic about our work. He held high Christian ideals. We doubly appreciated that because he was of another faith. He was wholeheartedly for anything that was wholesome and uplifting for the students.

During the six and a half years I served on the Murray campus in the capacity received into his office many times where I sought his counsel and advice. I always found it sound and helpful. He was interested in me and what I was doing. He encouraged me and helped to increase my determination to do big things in life.

I never failed to visit Dr. Richmond on my return trips to Murray. I paid him the usual visit when I was there last May and it grieved me to see his health wanting at that time.

I had the gift of words to express my love and the high regard I held for this noble man. You have done that so well in your tribute of last week. All you have said is true and more. I think with you that a gold star should be his.

Sincerely yours,
 Ralph D. Churchill

Dear Mrs. Hart:
 I am sending you a check in the amount of three dollars ($3.00) to extend my subscription to the Ledger & Times for another year. I have been away from Murray almost all of the last 20 years but I still like to keep up with the news from there.

In a couple of late issues of the paper I noticed you were wondering why Calloway county could not obtain some DDT. Due to the fact that I am a shipping clerk for one of the large chemical companies, I believe I can shed some light on the subject.

In time of war the U.S. Government holds priority on all equipment with which to prosecute war, as well as all drugs that can be used to alleviate suffering. Monsanto has produced and sold several hundred thousand pounds of DDT in the past year. All of it has gone to the Army and Navy. We also to some manufacturing concern that in turn would process this chemical for the government.

I shipped a carload of DDT to the Pacific coast last week that was to be processed for the navy. So you see that there is really not an adequate supply available for civilian use. Recently some of it has been released by the government for use by various other agencies.

DDT is a great product as well as others that are being produced by the chemical industry. Monsanto alone has produced about 40 new chemicals in the past year. Many of them will help to revolutionize the future of our nation.

Some of them were never even dreamed of five or six years ago. So I hope they help all of us to live a more abundant life in the future than we have in the past.

Yours truly,
 Chas. Leo Sparks

Ed's note: Thank you Leo, for the above letter. Orr's counting around here have DDT and Calloway and three others have none.

Doctors say that we haven't malaria, and that is the reason for no DDT. They say also that we have a lot of malaria bearing mosquitoes. Maybe our skins are so thick that we are immune to the disease.—L. H.

Mrs. Purcell Wa Egner's Bridge Named "Chickasaw"

Mrs. Maria Grassham Paduch, well known Kentuckian, is interested in the bridge that spans the Tennessee River at Egner's Ferry. She has written to the editor a week discussing the reasons for naming the bridge. According to her, there is a special interest in the name of the bridge, but it is an item that should have the consideration of West Kentuckians. Advertising for the recreational programs here would capitalize on a good name for the bridge.

Mrs. Purcell's letter quoted: "I am sure all Western Kentuckians are thrilled at the thought of our many bridges being free in the near future."

Mrs. Hart when you saw in Paduch, I was ill and could not come to hear you. I was glad to hear you again and anxious to discuss the question of naming the bridge. As you well know, the name has never been named. The name at the bridge is in progress, and both are aware of our historical sites (with no money to erect a marker showing we are on sacred ground. I feel you will agree there is only one name that belongs to this structure across the river at that point for many years called Egner's Ferry; the name belonging to this bridge we (many, many of us) feel should perpetuate our history by being named the Chickasaw, as all know the Chickasaw Indians were for many years owners of a vast area here. Moreover when the pale face (who had lived near these red men for years, built the first road from Hopkinsville to this point, they requested of his dusky neighbors that they sell them a permit to open a ferry at this point. The Chickasaws listened with interest but in reply said, "We will not sell you a permit for a ferry but we'll give it to you" (without money and without price).

Please use your influence to have it so named, thereby giving it a musical name, a historical name, a name that will cause patriotism to read the chapter of the Chickasaws in this section. It cannot be paralleled in all the pages of our history.

Yours truly,
 Martha Grassham Purcell

HEART THOUGHTS BY L. HART

I attended the piano recital of Miss Rachael Williams, a Murray State College senior, of Martin, Tenn. Sunday afternoon in Reel Hall. I lost track of time as I listened to her lovely interpretation of music, and watched her fingering. Her poise is perfect. She seemed so natural and unaffected. That is what the music department of the college does for one. I presume. I have mentioned that Miss Williams will be entering the Conservatory of Music, Cincinnati, this fall. With such performances as she gave Sunday, she will be receiving a scholarship and wide recognition.

Saturday I was told that a certain man said he was going to stop drunk for 30 days when Japan quit. Why he wants to celebrate in that way, I can't understand. Things look too good now, to pass out in a "soused" condition. We might have had more patience with such a desire back in Europe, but now we have everything to look forward to, no time to take out for being drunk.

Another person said that she had been asked: "How much shooting is going to take place in Murray when the war is over?" I didn't get the point and asked: "What kind of shooting?" And was told: "Men returning from the service to shoot the men who have been playing around their homes while they were in the service." That reminds me of the joke I read Sunday in the Courier-Journal: "One morning said to the other: 'When the war is over the wives can go out with their own husbands.'"

Mrs. C. S. Lowry is a loyal reader of the paper and fears that she might neglect renewing. Friday she came in and paid up for five years in advance. She doesn't trust us, and takes no chances. Mrs. Lowry has contributed her time and talent to working in the Training School during the war emergency. She and her husband have a good job. Her daughter, Ann, is graduating from the Training School this week. Dr. Lowry tried to drive some political economy and labor problems in my head during my post graduate work at the college. I am afraid it didn't register very well, but it was no fault of his.

We have strived in earnest to work on the Home Roll Book. We are including every man and woman of Calloway County who has been in military service. It is all that we can get the names of. We have every name who has gone through the local draft board. We have kept them each time they were called, and have not of the facts about their military record. But the volunteers may give us some trouble. We will have to depend on the names that are on the honor roll in the court yard.

Four churches prayed together in the Methodist church in observance of thanks for peace. It is commendable that four churches can meet together with a common feeling that we are all worshipping the same God, and working for the same salvation. It hurts that still in a small town there are some who cannot pray with others. All the boys fought together for a common cause. We may have learned in this war.

Ex-Service Men's News

National Service-Life Insurance is now good for eight years instead of five years. Under a new law recently signed by the President, under the old law the five year term for some holders of National Service-Life Insurance policies would have expired on December 31, 1945. The new law keeps these policies in effect until December 31, 1948. Policies issued after December 31, 1940 are still good for five years from the date they were issued, plus three years additional from that date. Thus a G. I. who bought his policy in 1944 has until 1952 before he needs to begin worrying about reconversion. Insurance policies that have already been converted to one of the three plans available—ordinary life, 20-payment-life, or 30-payment life—are not affected by the change in the law.

The Secretary of War has ordered that all qualified men, officers and enlisted men who have not served a minimum of six months overseas be replaced by May 1, 1946, and given foreign assignments to the maximum extent made possible by the return of overseas veterans. Exempted are enlisted men over 38 unless they request foreign service in writing; physically disqualified officers and men; special groups specifically exempted by the War Department, and sole surviving sons. In this last group are members of families of which two or more persons have been killed, are prisoners of war.

Good Ole American Soil...

The South is honored. It has been chosen as the place where thousands of returning heroes will first set foot on their native soil.

You may see some of them kiss that soil. And you may see many more waiting hopefully to get a long distance call home.

How about all of us skipping some long distance calls? How about keeping the necessary ones brief? Let us gladly accept this inconvenience for those who have given so much for us.

STATIONED IN NEW GUINEA

Pfc. Lowry Amos Summers, age 26, is a member of the Army Air Corps stationed on Luzon. He volunteered for service in January, 1941, trained at Galveston, Texas, Port Anderson, Texas, and sailed from Orlando, Fla., in November, 1943.

PFC. WILLIS N. FULTON WRITES L. & T. EDITOR

Dear Mrs. Hart:

I wish to inform you of my new address and thank you for seeing to it that I receive the paper each week. You don't know how much I enjoy getting my home paper. It is like getting a letter from home.

I have been transferred to a different outfit so my new address is Headquarters, Battery H, D.S.F., Fort Scott, San Francisco, Calif. If I should be changed to a different outfit, and my address should be changed, I will notify you at once.

I have been reading your paper for two years and I certainly have enjoyed it very much. Your paper has been one of the most morale-building letters that any one could receive except, that letter from mother or wife or your best friend—of course they come first with most of the G.I.'s, but it sure is worth a lot to receive a paper from your home town and read what is happening at home as well as where you are stationed.

I want to thank you again for the service you have given me each week by sending the paper.

Yours truly,
Willis N. Fulton

Ed's Note: Dear Willis: I am happy that you wrote to me telling of your appreciation of the Ledger and Times. We try real hard to include news each week that will be of interest to you men away from home. Our greatest joy will be printing the news that you are at home to stay. We'll be looking for you when you return, please come by to see us.

CLYDE J. LUTON SERVING WITH DESTROYER ESCORT

IN THE ATLANTIC—Clyde J. Luton, chief motor machinist's mate, USN, is now serving aboard a destroyer escort in the Atlantic Fleet.

A native of Murray, Ky., Luton's home is with his mother, Mrs. Mary B. Luton, 2908 North Robinson street, Oklahoma City, Okla.

The store of his war experiences is a resume of American victories from the first landings in Africa to the final defeat of the German armies in Europe.

Shifting from early duty in the Pacific to the Mediterranean, Luton saw service on a minesweeper in the invasion of Africa, and later helped clear the waters near Tunis so heavy ships could approach the shore and shell the retreating Germans. Shifting with the American advance, Luton was decorated with the Presidential Unit citation for the work his ship did in the advance upon Sicily. The Salerno and Anzio invasions added another battle star to his European theater ribbon.

In the invasion of southern France, Luton won a Silver Star decoration for heroic work in the rescue of the crew from a mined ship.

PFC. CALVIN W. STARKS HAS DANGEROUS MISSION

WITH THE 31st DIVISION IN MINDANAO —(Special)—The moon was down. Pfc. Calvin W. Starks of Murray, Ky., and his Company L were making time. It was a night march one of very few reported by American units in the Pacific.

The usual strategy is to say in your hole and let the Japs do the prowling at night. But Company L of the 167th Infantry Regiment had a mission and Jap sniper fire during the day was too heavy.

For more than two hours, racing against the time when the moon would come up to expose them, the company trudged steadily over the mud-slick Talamo Trail. Each man stepped in the footprints of the man ahead of him.

So closely-knit was this pattern that the whole column skirted a Jap-filled tree without stepping on 10 pounds of TNT which the Japs had planted in a deadly "kick mine" at its tip.

There were barely two feet for passage—and the mine a foot in diameter—was in the middle of that two feet.

Pfc. Starks, son of Mrs. Nancy D. Starks of Route 1, Murray, was one of 80 men who went around the log safely in the black of night.

The lead scout had missed that mine by an inch.

SERVES WITH NAVY

John W. Story, S. 2-c, the son of Mrs. Guy R. Story of Dearborn, Mich., formerly of Colfax county, is serving in the Navy yard at Pearl Harbor. Prior to induction he held a responsible position with the United States Geographical Survey with headquarters in Washington. He spent seven months in Alaska and in every state in the Union except Florida.

To The Voters, My Friends and Neighbors, of Wadesboro District No. 6

I take this opportunity to extend my thanks to the 307 voters that went to the polls August 4 and cast their votes for me without promise or fear. The confidence they placed in me I will never forget.

To you who cast your vote against me, I have nothing against you in any way. I am still your friend. It doesn't matter whether you deceived me or not. I wish you well. I also wish my opponent four years of happiness and success.

Your friend,

Lee Barnett

L. R. YATES, SEAMAN 1-c, HELPS POLISH OFF JAPS

ABOARD THE USS PETROF BAY IN THE PACIFIC—L. R. Yates, Seaman, First Class, USNR, 311 North Sixth street, Murray, Ky., helped polish off Japanese planes and shipping in this small aircraft carrier fought at Okinawa, Iwo Jima and in other engagements that sometimes carried her within 15 miles of enemy-held bases.

Fighting off suicide planes, torpedoes, bombs, strafing and surface and undersea attacks has been a daily routine for the PETROF BAY since she first tangled with the Japs in September, 1944, at Palawan.

Pilots from their carrier have knocked down 20 Jap planes and the ship's gunners have accounted for five more. Five flags painted on the bridge signify that three Jap cruisers, a destroyer and a merchant ship have fallen victims to the PETROF BAY.

Officers, pilots and men aboard the carrier have won 103 decorations for outstanding devotion to duty from September, 1944, to February, 1945. 18 of the awards being Navy crosses, the Navy's second highest award, while 37 have been Silver Star Medals.

During the Battle for Leyte Gulf, destroyers and men stayed at their battle stations more than four days without a lull, undergoing attack most of the time. Meanwhile, her planes were blasting the enemy, returning to refuel, then going back into the fray. Of four escort carriers taking part in the action, the PETROF BAY was the only one to emerge without a hit.

CPL. JOHN T. IRVAN WRITES OPINION OF THE BACK HOME ACTIVITIES

Cpl. John T. Irvan, who has been with the First Army and served in the Intelligence and Reconnaissance Platoon and is being kept for occupation in Germany, has written to the editor a letter that gives a view of the activities here at home as seen by a soldier in foreign fields.

This letter is quoted:
With the First Division at Bamberg, Germany, June 12, 1945.

I think this is the first letter I have written you since VE-Day. In fact it is the first one in several months. Although I have not written to you, I have been thinking about all of you and your activities. We did not have much time for anything until the Germans surrendered, for they were pushing us very hard and we moved rapidly. We could see the end of things and it was just a matter of moving and never letting the Germans get set after us once we got them on the run. That is just what we did and it paid off in victory. It was not as easy as it read in the papers and I think that the hardest times that I had personally was right up at the last few days. Once things began to break they did so with amazing speed, but even at that someone was bound to get hurt.

One thing that I have noticed in the home papers, and I mean by the home papers, any paper from the United States, is the tendency to overlook the difficulties encountered in the smallest of operations. When a small village or town is taken it is looked upon as something of an important nature and without the realization that casualties are involved. I might be wrong in my belief on that subject, but it strikes me that that attitude prevails in the States. So many times I have listened to the radio from the States and I would hear the newscaster say that on a certain front that activities were limited to patrols and artillery duels. I would like to take that guy on one of those patrols just once, I am sure that he would have a little more emphasis in these words the next time that he said them on the air. You have the wife of a friend of mine who lost his life on just such a patrol which seems so insignificant as one listens to it being read over the air in some nice warm studio in the United States.

I was very much interested in the Ledger & Times edition of V-E Day. I liked it very much and the celebrations that were carried out at home were in my estimation fitting and proper. I also liked the latest issue of the Times, which had all the pictures of the boys who have given their lives for the United States. Although it does not do them any good at the time.

How is Beckie doing these days? I hope that she is not causing you too much trouble. I noticed that Virginia had been away on a long vacation. I am glad that she is back for every day Beckie would write to me and say, "I will be glad when Va. is back because I sure do miss her." Beckie also wrote that you had a hunch that I was on my way home. I sure do wish that your hunch would come true, but for the present it looks like I will get to help occupy Germany for awhile. Believe you me, I am ready to come home for a while, and hope that it is soon.

Well, Lochie, I must close and do a little work. Write to me when you have time and give my regards to everyone at home and my love to Beckie.

Sincerely,
John T. Irvan.
